Location & Theme: ADVENTURERS WANTED!

Get ready! The 2013 National Scout Jamboree is coming and it isn't your father's jamboree. We're talking serious high adventure, people. Whitewater rafting, ziplining, rappelling, mountain biking, hiking, and more—with 50,000 of your closest friends at the brand new Summit Bechtel Reserve in the wilds of West Virginia. Check the date above and start planning now to be a part of history at the very first Jamboree at the Summit.

FEES INCLUDE: The Jamboree fee covers transportation, tours, meals lodging, patrol and troop equipment, as well as insurance and most admission fees. Your fee also covers two training weekends that you will attend before the Jamboree. Additional expenses will include your personal equipment, uniforms and spending money for souvenirs, etc.

TRAVEL PLANS: The Blue Grass Council Jamboree Contingent is in the process of looking at travel plans.

ORGANIZATION: The Blue Grass Council contingent has limited space. The Jamboree is open to all participants who are qualified and approved on first-come basis. Placement in each contingent troop is also based on order of registration (payment and signed form received at office).

After our troops have been filled, a stand-by list of alternates will be assigned to a Jamboree troop consisting of 36 Scouts and four adult leaders. Scouts will be a member of a patrol within one of the troops.

PARTICIPANTS: The Jamboree is being planned for about 50,000 participants—35,000 Boy Scouts, 10,000 Ventures and troop leaders.
